

夢想法案 DACA-Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals

People who came to the United States as children and meet a number of requirements may apply for a Deferred Action for two years, subject to renewal, and would then be qualified to obtain a work permit and stay in the country. People that meet these guidelines, through verifiable documentation, will be considered for Deferred Action.

Principal Requirements:

1. As of June 15, 2012, the applicant were under 31 years old;
2. Have been in the United States before reach 16 years old;
3. Have been living in the United States since June 15, 2007, up to the present time;
4. As of June 15, 2012 and, at the time of the request, have been physical in the United States;
5. Came to the United States without inspection before June 15, 2012, or lawful immigration status expired as of June 15, 2012;
6. Applicants have been currently studying, have graduated or obtained a certificate of completion from high school, have obtained a GED certificate, or are an honorably discharged veteran of the Coast Guard or Armed Forces of the United States;
7. Have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, three or more other misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

Each one of these requirements has some additional regulations, please give us a call 626-571-4666 or come to see us for a personalized consultation.